

Silly Prompt Brainstorm

What are silly prompts or questions that you could write an essay about?

Here's a few examples to get you started:

Humans would look better with tails.

All school assignments should be taught with cartoons.

Cell phones should be surgically attached to our heads.

Would living on Mars be a good idea?

How could teenagers take over the world?

Now it's your turn! Think about something funny you could write an essay about. The sillier the better!

Brainstorm prompt ideas here:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Now write your paragraphs. Remember the steps:

1. Turn the prompt/question into a claim.
2. Add 3 reasons to the claim to create a thesis.
3. Write a body paragraph about ONE of the 3 reasons.
